

WALLACE R. LANE, CHICAGO LAWYER, HONORED BY U. S.

Secretary of State Kellogg has appointed Wallace R. Lane, Chicago lawyer, as one of a committee of three to represent America at the sixth annual international conference for the protection of industrial property.

The meeting will be held at The Hague, Netherlands, in October, and the appointment is subject to approval of President Coolidge.

Formation of international treaties covering patents, trade-marks, and copyrights, and opposing unfair competition are the ambitions of the conference.

Attorney Lane, a specialist in patents, has served as chairman of the patent section of the American Bar association, president of the American Patent society, and president of the Chicago Patent Law association.

U. OF I. TO ACT ON RADIO OFFER IN FEW DAYS

Plans for the establishment at the University of Illinois of a radio station in honor of Roger C. Sullivan, late Democratic leader, are expected to be completed at a conference here within a few days between President David Kinley of the university and Boetius Sullivan, son of Mr. Sullivan and donor of the station.

Mr. Sullivan on Monday announced his intention of establishing the station, and another similar to it at Notre Dame university, both to be used exclusively for educational purposes. Each station is to be provided with a liberal endowment to care for its permanent maintenance.

Arrangements for the conference between Mr. Sullivan and President Kinley were made last night by Merle J. Trees, a University of Illinois trustee, who called at St. Luke's hospital, where Mr. Sullivan is convalescing from an illness.

MERCHANT'S WIFE DIES AT OFFICE OF LOOP DOCTOR

Mrs. Eunice A. Thornburgh, wife of Harry Thornburgh, a South Water street commission merchant, died suddenly, supposedly of heart failure, yesterday while in the office of her physician, Dr. Hugh T. Patrick, 25 East Washington street. Dr. Patrick informed police that she succumbed shortly after he, with Dr. N. D. Levy, had administered a serum injection.

"Dr. Patrick has been attending Mrs. Thornburgh for more than two years, during most of which time she has been critically ill," explained Mr. Thornburgh. "She was not feeling well when I took her to Dr. Patrick's office this morning. Soon after receiving the injection she collapsed."
